

February 2021

At the moment, we are still hosting fortnightly zoom meetings for all members in order that we can motivate each other and keep thinking about our art – until the time comes when we can start to meet in person again.

We enjoy a general catch-up at these zoom meetings and continue to set an art challenge at each meeting. Every fortnight we review the efforts of members in relation to the previous challenge and ask one member to volunteer to set another subject for the following two weeks. These sessions are proving popular and produce quite a variety of artwork.

During February we also had a zoom watercolour demonstration from Catherine Beale – the first organised demo in 12 months that hasn't had to be cancelled. Please have a look at the News and Events page of the website for more information.

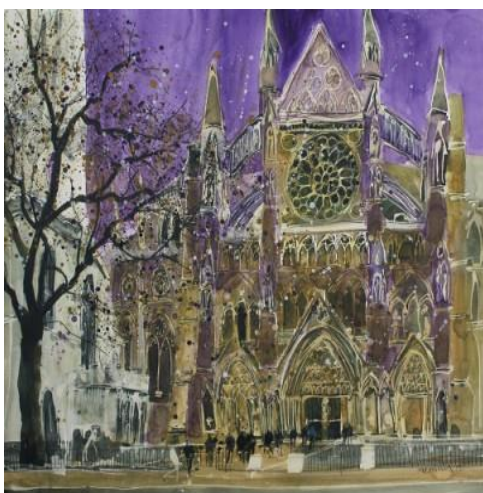

Painters and their paintings

Number 2 – nominated by Tania Wilkie, Susan Brown

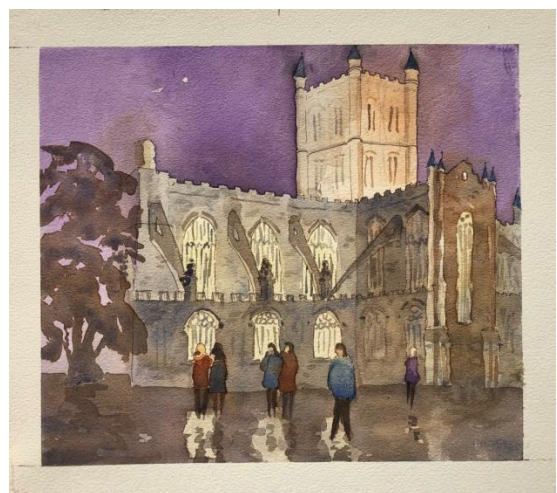

Tania's challenge involved the artwork of Susan Brown, an artist from York who works in watercolour and acrylics mainly and is known for her cityscapes, painted in very vibrant and often unexpected colours. Here are a couple of her recent works.
